Current Pursuits

A. I am currently working on a book titled 'Prachyawad, Aalochana Aur Sahityetihas' (Orientalism, Criticism and Literary History) in which I am studying the influences of European ideas on historiographers of Hindi Literature. The book is almost ready for publication.

B. Simultaneously I am also working on a project 'Edward Said ki Duniya' (Edward Said's World) on the life and writings of late Prof. Edward W. Said, who has significantly influenced the academic discourses of last five decades around the world.
