

XI Biennial National Conference of Physics Academy of North East (PANE), 2018

21 – 23 November, 2018

Department of Physics
Assam University, Diphu Campus

Physics Academy of North East (PANE) was formed in 1998 to promote physics education, collaborative research and dissemination of scientific knowledge in the region. Since inception, PANE has been regularly organizing its biennial series of conferences apart from various workshops and PANE lectures at different institutions.

Department of Physics, Assam University, Diphu Campus will host the 11th edition of the biennial conference of PANE during 21-23 November, 2018. The PANE biennial conference provides an excellent opportunity to young researchers in physics to present their work and interact with experts in their respective fields.
