Resolutions: I introduced an agenda

1. The following modifications in the current syllabus ~~are~~ are proposed and forwarded to the SPQS for consideration:

(i) Course 102 Unit I → change in the translation of Longinus' 'On Sublime' (input to be provided by SKN)

Unit II → Wordsworth's "Preface to the Lyrical Ballads" changed from the 1802 to 1800 edition

Biographia Literaria: Chapter 16 to be replaced by Chapter 17.

(ii) Course 103: The existing syllabus broken down into detailed subunits placed in the meeting and forwarded.

(iii) Course 104: Unit V → Stakgold to be replaced by Castiglione's "The Courtier" translated by Sir Thomas Stoby as in Norton Anthology 10th Edition.

(iv) Course 404(c) → Unit II → Chapters to be taught specified
Sukanta Choudhuri → Chapters 3 & 4
Sujit Mukherjee → Chapters 6 & 10

(v) Course 305: Unit 1.5 → "American Dream" is dropped Unit 1.2 → "The European Contact and The American Revolution" broken into two subunits.

(vi) Course 308 → Unit 4 → "The Captive Ladies" and "The Tiger and the Deer" are dropped from the syllabus.

(vii) Course 304(A) → Gender and Literature expanded to form two courses 304(A) and 404(A) on Gender and Literature I & II respectively.

(viii) Course 404(C) → Modern European Classics similarly expanded to form two courses 404(E) and 304(E) or Modern Literary Classics I
& II respectively.

(ix) Course 304(C) and Course 404(A) reorganized and restructured to form 304(C) and 404(E) on Translation Studies I & II respectively.

All of the above are subject to the ratification in the BPQS.

2. The faculty members as well as the departmental office requires storerooms/storage space. The matter would be pursued with the Administration or alternative means of procuring the same would be considered.
3. One guest faculty cubicle is to be interchanged with the existing Research Scholars' cubicle at the earliest.
4. A query would be forwarded to the CP10 regarding the length of time internal examination scripts need to be preserved by the faculty members.
