

Declaration

Terms and Conditions for using the ICT Data Centre and High-Performance Computation Facility,

- The Login account for accessing the facility is given to the faculty member of Assam University (hereafter referred as the 'User') only. Faculty members may provide their Login account for accessing the facility to the respective Students/Research Scholars working with them.
- The User will use the facility for academic and research purposes only.
- The User will strictly adhere to respective licensing policies of all third-party software.
- The User will not hold ICT Data Centre and High-Performance Computation Facility responsible for any unavailability of service, loss of data, emergent shut-down or any other performance issues.
- The User will be solely responsible for installation of software or any other activities done with his/her login.
- Any activity using this facility which violates international/national laws is prohibited.
- The User is solely responsible for maintenance, security and backup of data in their respective user account.
- The User accepts that his/her account will be suspended immediately if it is found to pose any security risk or if any fraudulent activities are noticed.
- After the expiry of the approved duration of a User account, the data will be available only for a period of three months after which data and account would be removed, unless the account is renewed.
- The User will duly acknowledge the facility in their publications. (Kindly Acknowledge the following: "ICT Data Centre and High-Performance Computation Facility, Assam University" and intimate this Center about such publications)
- The User will adhere to any changes in terms and conditions made available from time to time.

Signature of the faculty

Name:

Date:

Signature of the HoD (with seal)

Name:

Date: