Professor Dibyojyoti Bhattacharjee
Professor and HOD
Department of Statistics
Assam University Silchar

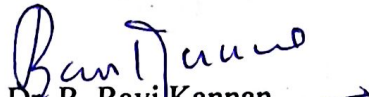

Dear Sir:

We would like to thank you for presenting 15 lectures in July and August, 2017 to teach the staff of Cachar Cancer Hospital and Research Centre, Silchar the principles and practice of statistics. We truly appreciate your taking the time and effort to share your expertise and experience with our staff.

We believe that the skills we have learnt from you will be immensely useful in our work as health professionals. Your readiness to do this, your sincerity, your ability to reach out to people with varying backgrounds and above all, your enthusiasm to share make you a fine example for us to follow.

Thanking you once again,

Sincerely,

Dr. R. Ravi Kannan
Director

Director
