Assam University, Silchar

Established in 1994 as Central University by an Act of Parliament (Act 13 of 1989) enforced through notification of the Government of India.

The university over the years has made impressive strides in establishing itself as a premier institution of learning in North-East India where the emphasis persistently has been on blending quality education, socially relevant endeavors and scientific pursuits with mission-oriented and tireless striving for excellence.

The sprawling University campus is spread over an area of about 600 acres where 39 departments under 16 schools of studies of the university function. The Institution provides state of the art facilities to students who come from different parts of the country and abroad. The current role strength is above 3000 which includes the students at the Post-Graduate and Integrated Courses and the researchers at M.Phil and Ph. D. levels.

The campus is at a distance of 23 kilometers from Silchar town. Silchar being the gateway to the southern part of North East India is the hub for commercial activities and is known for its history as the Tea Capital South Assam.

With the mystique Bhuvan and the Barail ranges of hills at the backdrop, Assam University Campus is surrounded by the lush green hill-locks, natural lakes and picturesque tea gardens of South Assam. The serene setting together with exquisite natural beauty in and around the campus adds uniqueness to the University's ambience capturing viewers' imagination and provides an ideal atmosphere for study and research.

Message from the Dean

The Department of Social Work, one of the most sought after Departments of aspiring students in Assam University, Silchar. By establishing the Department, the University had fulfilled an acute need of the students. In fact Assam University was one of the first to introduce the subject in the north eastern region. Since then the Department has grown into a robust Department bursting with academic activity ranging from Undergraduate to Post graduate studies. Its research programme includes Ph D through which the Department has broken new grounds and explored many new areas.

The Department is known for its high quality education, its application based courses updated from time to time according to the changing needs of the country imparted by its professional faculty. The combined endeavour in teaching, research, field work and advocacy shows the department's commitment to integrate theory with practice and social action aimed at touching different aspects of our social life and progressive social transformation. The Department has state of the art facilities, active student-society interaction, exchange programmes and training opportunities which provide students and researchers with on the field experience and prepare them for harder struggles for the upliftment of rural and urban poor, under privileged and socially marginalised. The students are thus ideologically committed to the cause of justice and societal development. It is the result of this sustained endeavour of the Department and its faculty that the students of the Department has succeeded in competitive service sector, excelled in professional life and recruited by national and international agencies making the University proud of this Department.

I extend a hearty and warm welcome to all recruiting agencies to Assam University, Silchar to interact with our highly motivated professional students of the Department of Social Work. I am sanguine that you will find in our students, most competitive and suitable candidates for your projects who would not be found wanting in their pursuit of excellence and contribute their best to the task of nation building.

We invite you, to participate in the process of selecting the brightest students. We look forward to build long lasting and mutually beneficial relationship with you.

Prof. M. Gangabhushan

Message from the Field Work Co-ordinator

It gives me great joy and happiness to know that our placement unit as always is bringing out the placement brochure and this is happening as the world and India battles a raging pandemic Covid19. Being the First and the only Department in the North-East India having a Five-year Integrated course leading to Master of Social Work, the Department offers rigorous theoretical and Fieldwork training to its students. Located in the Barak Valley of Assam sharing international border with Bangladesh, the Fieldwork setting is culturally and geographically very rich and diverse. Such a context provides lot of opportunities as well as challenges for Fieldwork Practice. The entire region is predominantly rural with approximately Ninety percent population living in villages. The human development index of the region is lower than the Human Development Index value of Assam. This means that employment, education and health indicators are low in the district and the region. Therefore the department trains its students to make sustainable interventions in these key areas of Human Development from Rights based Perspective.

This year Covid19 Pandemic has challenged the knowledge, skill and competence of Social Workers in providing relief and health care to large number of people. Our Student trainees have over the years developed the skill to work in culturally diverse ecosystem and evidence based practice is emphasised in the fieldwork training. Training curriculum is revised and redesigned periodically in the context of new standards of competence for social workers. This equips the students to address extensive range of human problems. They are equipped with research skill and scientific temperament in the field of social sciences and social work. They are trained to face the challenges and explore innovative solutions to the problems through their knowledge, skill and competence. I am delighted to introduce our students who would be an asset to the different agencies committed to achieving Sustainable Development Goals. If ever there was a time to show compassion and a sense of belongingness to each other, it is now.

Dr. Mrityunjay K. Singh

Message from the Placement Co-ordinator

With a lot of pride and joy I present to you the job placement brochure of Masters in Social Work batch of 2019-2020. The brochure presents the profiles of a professional group of social workers. The social work students of our department have undergone rigorous curriculum inputs in not only theory but in practice as well. Their field work in agencies (Govt/Non-Govt) and communities (Rural/Urban) has grounded them in realities of life. The compulsory dissertation paper has instilled in them research and documentation skill. These inputs make our students very apt for work at all levels with individuals, groups and communities. Their experience of working with communities and agencies even during COVID 19 Pandemic made them well versed with the prevalent contemporary challenges of society and nature of intervention it requires.

Our students are ready with their innovative ideas, knowledge and skills to address and solve the issues of social importance. With no doubt, I would say, proper justice would be given to the portfolios if the students are recruited by your organisation. I, on behalf of the faculty, Staff and students welcome you in our Assam University to interact with our students and find your own partners-in-change from amongst them.

Dr. Aditi Nath

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK

In Assam University, the Department of Social Work is one of the six departments of the School of Social Sciences. It started its journey in July, 1997 with only two faculty members. Since then the department has grown in its strength and activity across the region. The Department of Social Work is the only institute of North East India to have a Five Years Integrated Course in social work and offers multivariate field exposures and specialization to its students. At present there are fifteen teachers with various specialisations of Social Work. The aim is to prepare social work professional through practice and research based teaching to respond to social change, welfare and developmental needs at various levels.

The department runs Five Years Integrated Course in Social Work which leads to BSW (Three Years) and MSW (Two Years). The department has adopted CBCS pattern & offers various papers like Disaster management, human rights, NGO management, Rural Development, Micro finance, Criminology, Youth and National Integration, Life skills development.

Regarding research, the department is offering Ph.D Programme. Scholars have been pursuing ph.
