Assam University, Silchar

Established in 1994 as Central University by an Act of Parliament (Act 13 of 1989) enforced through notification of the Government of India.

The university over the years has made impressive strides in establishing itself as a premier institution of learning in North-East India where the emphasis persistently has been on blending quality education, socially relevant endeavors and scientific pursuits with mission-oriented and tireless striving for excellence.

The sprawling University campus is spread over an area of about 600 acres where 39 departments under 16 schools of studies of the university function. The Institution provides state of the art facilities to students who come from different parts of the country and abroad. The current role strength is above 3000 which includes the students at the Post-Graduate and Integrated Courses and the researchers at M.Phil and Ph. D. levels.

The campus is at a distance of 23 kilometers from Silchar town. Silchar being the gateway to the southern part of North East India is the hub for commercial activities and is known for its history as the Tea Capital South Assam.

With the mystique Bhuvan and the Barail ranges of hills at the backdrop, Assam University Campus is surrounded by the lush green hill-locks, natural lakes and picturesque tea gardens of South Assam. The serene setting together with exquisite natural beauty in and around the campus adds uniqueness to the University's ambience capturing viewers' imagination and provides an ideal atmosphere for study and research.

Message from the Vice-Chancellor's desk

It is indeed pleasure to note that the Department of Social Work under the Jadunath Sarkar School of Social Sciences is going to publish the Placement Brochure 2018-19. In today's world, the placement of students of any institution is most essential and Assam University's Social Work Department has been designed to prepare capable people who are committed to work in the social sector and are passionate to make a difference in the world in which they live and the faculty members of department made it possible by their relentless effort and dedication. The information in the brochure will certainly help the recruiters to find the possible human resources from the department.

I sincerely hope that the department would not leave any stone unturned to highlight the students to the possible recruiters in the coming days and wish the success to all students.

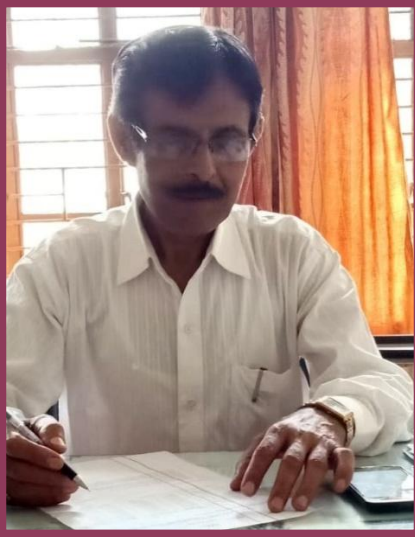

Date: 27.03.2019

Vice Chancellor

Prof. Dilip Chandra Nath

Message from the Dean

Jadunath Sarkar School of Social Sciences

The Department of Social Work, Assam University, Silchar is a vibrant department that continually upgraded itself in terms of its academic programs and research during the last two decades after its establishment. The department attracts the brightest and dynamic faculty members and the best of students for its undergraduate, post graduate and doctoral programs.

The Department imparts high quality education for social transformation through professional and application based courses touching different aspects of our social life. The simultaneous engagement in teaching, research, field work and advocacy shows the department's commitment to integrate theory with practice and social action.

Being exposed to sound and well defined academic programs along with action in the field, the students of the department become not arm-chair, recluses but action oriented individuals committed to the cause of justice and societal development. The presence of the state-of-the-art facilities, active department-society interaction, exchange programs and training opportunities facilitates the students of the Department to excel in competitive professional life. The graduates, post graduates and doctorates of the Department have been selected by different national and international agencies. They made the department proud.

I warmly welcome the recruiting agencies to Assam University, Silchar to interact with highly motivated professional students of the Department of Social Work. I am confident that our students will prove to be real assets to your organisations and will contribute their best to the task of nation building and development.

Prof. Debasish Bhattacharjee

Message from Head of the Department

Greetings from Department of Social Work, Assam University, Silchar, Assam!

It is a matter of pride for us to present the annual placement brochure of Department of Social Work of Assam University, Silchar for the session 2018-19. With the advent of changing social milieu, the Social Work Department is presenting with the current batch of students with right kind of knowledge, requisite skills, ability to think out of the box and innovation.

The Department of Social Work gives utmost importance to assist its students in getting suitable placements after the successful completion of their studies. The department organizes activities and workshops at regular intervals for the holistic development of students that enable them to be effective both at grassroots and organizational level. The department with its highly experienced and qualified teachers ensures updated academic delivery and equips the students with the right values & skills to accept the contemporary challenges.

If you are looking for the best social work talent, Department of Social Work is one of the best choices that can meet your expectations and contribute to your human resource talent pool. We invite you, to participate in the process of selecting the brightest students. We look forward to build long lasting and mutually beneficial relationship with you.

Prof. M. Gangabhushan

Message from the Field Work Co-ordinator

It gives me great joy and happiness to know that our placement unit as always is bringing out the placement brochure. I congratulate the entire team and my esteemed colleagues of the Department for their hard work and commitment to achieving excellence in Social Work Education and Practice. Being the First and the only Department in the North-East India having a Five-year Integrated course leading to Master of Social Work, the Department offers rigorous theoretical and Fieldwork training to its students. Located in the Barak Valley of Assam sharing international border with Bangladesh, the Fieldwork setting is culturally and geographically very rich and diverse. Such a context provides lot of opportunities as well as challenges for Fieldwork Practice. The entire region is predominantly rural with approximately ninety percent population living in villages. The Human Development Index of the region is lower than the Human Development Index value of Assam. This means that employment, education and health indicators are low in the district and the region. Therefore the department trains its students to make sustainable interventions in these key areas of Human Development from Rights based Perspective.

Student trainees have over the years developed the skill to work in culturally diverse ecosystem and evidence based practice is emphasized in the fieldwork training. Training curriculum is revised and redesigned periodically in the context of new standards of competence for social workers. This equips the students to address extensive range of human problems. They are equipped with research skill and scientific temperament in the field of social sciences and social work. They are trained to face the challenges and explore innovative solutions to the problems through their knowledge, skill and competence. I am delighted to introduce our students who would be an asset to the different agencies committed to achieving Sustainable Development Goals.

Dr. Mrityunjay K. Singh

Message from the Placement Co-ordinator

Dear Recruiters,

I take the privilege to introduce to you the most enthusiastic, vibrant, and professionally competent outgoing batch (2019) of Masters of Social Work. The unique composition of the batch represents the diverse background and yet they are knotted by the ideals and value framework of social work. The field work program which comprises of the components of orientation program, concurrent fieldwork, summer internship and block placement, supportive field instruction, workshop, seminar, presentations etc. made social work as a course, an unique

one. The uniqueness of the course not only exposed students to the realities of rural and urban area of the region but also trained them to practice social work methods, principles, techniques and skills in their assignments with welfare, development and corporate sectors. They are made ready to reach to the unreached section of population with their innovative ideas, knowledge and skills. Their experience of working with communities and agencies made them well versed with the prevalent contemporary challenges of society and nature of intervention. They are well adapt in addressing problems and adopt problem solving approaches accordingly to offer a better life to the people who are in need of it. Without any doubt, I would say, proper justice would do to the portfolios if the students are offered with by your organisation. I, on behalf of the faculty, staff and students take pride to welcome you in our Assam University, cordoned off with natural beauty to interact with our students and find your own partners-in-change from amongst them. I also extend an invitation to you all to participate in building a long-term relationship with the Department.

Dr. Aditi Nath

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK

In Assam University, the Department of Social Work is one of the six departments of the School of Social Sciences. It started its journey in July, 1997 with only two faculty members. Since then the department has grown in its strength and activity across the region. The Department of Social Work is the only institute of North East India to have a Five Years Integrated Course in social work and offers multivariate field exposures and specialization to its students. At present there are fifteen teachers with various specialisations of Social Work. The aim is to prepare social work professional through practice and research based teaching to respond to social change, welfare and developmental needs at various levels.

The department runs Five Years Integrated Course in Social Work which leads to BSW (Three Years) and MSW (Two Years). The department has adopted CBCS pattern & offers various papers like Disaster management, human rights, NGO management, Rural Development, Micro finance, Criminology, Youth and National Integration, Life skills development.
