“Constitution is not a mere lawyers’ document, it is a vehicle of Life, and its spirit is always the spirit of Age.”
- Dr. B.R. Ambedkar

India celebrates Constitution Day (National Law Day) on the 26th of November every year to venerate the adoption of the Constitution of India. It was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on 26th November 1949 and came into effect on 26th January 1950.

India, the largest democracy in the world, is governed by a written Constitution and the rule of law. The Constitution guarantees to the citizens of the country equality, liberty, justice, and dignity irrespective of any distinction and expressly prohibits any kind of discrimination. In the past 73 years of independence, India has witnessed tumultuous situations which were salvaged by the existence of this Constitution. Simultaneously, it has also adapted to change leading to 104 amendments till date. The need of the society varies in each era and requires transformation in every sphere. Thus, it is pertinent to keep abreast of the changing paradigms of the most significant document in the country as we commemorate the 71st Constitution Day of India.
