

ASSAM UNIVERSITY : SILCHAR

NOTICE

It is observed that in spite of the office order on vacating the hostels vide Notice dated 16th March 2020 and subsequent reminder notices on collecting the luggages/belongings by the boarders from their respective hostel rooms issued from this end; a substantial number of boarders are yet to completely vacate their hostel room by collecting their belongings and handing over the keys of the room to respective wardens. Therefore, concerned boarders are once again directed to immediately collect their belongings from hostel by 10th December 2021 and hand over the keys of the room to respective wardens; failing which, their belongings shall be confiscated by the University and the concerned boarders shall have no claim for the same. To collect the belongings within stipulated time of 10th December 2021, the concerned boarders shall have to report to Security officer of the University and duly inform the respective Wardens. The boarders are expected to come with valid proof of identity. In case of their inability to collect the same in person, the boarders may authorise their legal guardian to collect the same.
