

ASSAM UNIVERSITY::SILCHAR NOTICE

In partial modification to the notice F.No.AUR/21-1/2020/100, dated 8th February 2022 and F.No.AUR/21-1/2020/101, dated 14th February 2022 issued from this end on conduct of odd Semester end-examinations of various Courses/Semesters/Departments of the University; following guidelines are issued for necessary compliances by all concerned:

1. The odd semester end-examination shall be held in blending mode (i.e offline and online).
2. The offline examination shall be held in the month of March for all Semesters/Courses/Departments of the University except 1st Semester PG Courses.
3. All online examination henceforth shall be held in proctored mode to be developed/purchased/hired by the University in due course of time.
4. The online examinations shall be held after due familiarization of the proctored system by the concerned students. This may take considerable time and therefore date of examination shall be notified when the entire process is ready.
5. There shall be no re-evaluation of scripts for online examination as per the guidelines already followed by the University. However in offline examinations, re-evaluation shall remain to be an integral part of the examination process.
6. Students appearing online examination shall have to ensure uninterrupted internet network. The University shall not be responsible for not complying with the examination guidelines due to network issues.
7. The guidelines for adopting unfair means during offline examinations shall equally apply in case of online examinations.
8. Students willing to appear the odd semester end-examination through online mode shall have to submit an application to respective head of the departments exercising the option for online by 26th February 2022 (2 PM). No further extension of the period shall be granted.
9. Concerned departments shall have to notify the list of students opting for online examination by 28th February 2022 to avoid any confusion amongst examinees.
10. 1st Semester offline classes of under graduate courses of the University shall commence from 25th February 2022. Classes shall be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The exams of 1st Semester UG courses shall be held as per guidelines laid down above.
11. The classes of next even semester may be started by concerned Department immediately after the end of offline odd semester end-examination pending online examination.
