

ASSAM UNIVERSITY :: SILCHAR NOTICE

In pursuance of the notice F.No.AUR/21-1/2020/105 dated 25.02.2022 issued from this end; and, in pursuance of the recommendations of the committee constituted for phase wise reopening of the University campus; following guidelines are laid for necessary compliances by all concerned:

1. 1st Semester offline classes for all the Courses may start from 1st week of April 2022. Respective Departments may prepare class routine and notify the commencement of offline classes at the earliest accordingly.
2. Odd Semester Examinations of semesters/courses which are/were not held due to lack of consensus for appearing in offline mode shall have their odd semester examination in online proctored mode only from April 15-30, 2022. Accordingly Controller of Examinations, Heads of Concerned Departments, Students and other stake holders are expected to take necessary action at the earliest. Detailed guideline of online mode shall be communicated to CoE and all HoDs for further information of students.
3. A preparatory leave of 7-10 days may be given to students for appearing the Semester end-examinations.
4. DSW shall initiate steps for allotment of hostels to willing students as per criteria in April 2022. Hostel will open for occupation by fresh boarders from May 2022.
5. Offline classes shall continue to be held in alternate days until further order. Academic departments are required to prepare class schedule of different semesters of respective departments accordingly.
