Item: No. 13 : Course fee revision for Department of Economics :

AC:95:09-23:13 : The Head, Dept. of Economics & Chairman, BPGS has forwarded the following decision of the BPGS for placing in the Academic Council.

The members of BPGS noted that the present course fee is Rs. 1200 per student per annum for the department of Economics which urgently needs an upwards revision in order to meet expenses especially in the context of current price trends in most consumables, office stationary including printing aids, durable assets which includes furniture and ICT enabled teaching aids.

The Chairman placed the proposal of upward revision of this amount to Rs. 3600 from the existing amount of Rs 1200/-. A discussion was initiated with special focus on the course fee structure across Departments in the campus for non-AICTE category (i.e., excluding School of Management and TSSOT). The members unanimously emphasized on the following points.

□ The sister Department (Dept. of Commerce) of the MGSEC has a current course fee of Rs. 3600. Members noted that the School level parity in course fee structure necessitates an upward revision of course fees.

□ Several non-AICTE Departments in the campus have a course fee of Rs. 3600/- at present (Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Biotechnology etc.).

□ Departments like Mass Communications and Social Work have course fees of Rs.6000/-.

The DAC decided that this matter is to be placed in higher statutory bodies for urgent consideration.

The matter was placed before the Council for consideration.

Resolution : The deliberation made by the Head, Dept. of Economics was considered by the Council and it was resolved that all such proposal shall be routed through the Fee Revision Committee of the University to finalize the issue and the report shall be placed before the next meeting of the Academic Council.
