

ASSAM UNIVERSITY, SILCHAR

NOTICE

It has been observed that blocking of the gate of the University or passage or any office of the University, thereby hindering official work in the name of protest, causes enormous financial and other losses to the University in particular and the nation as a whole. While the University appreciates democratic right of any stake holders of the University to hold protest, and encourages dialogue and discussion to resolve any grievances, it is also important to note that in exercising such right there should not be infringement of any other people's right to work or move. In case anyone is found to commit any hindrance that infringes upon others' right by obstructing/blocking gate/passages of the University; one is liable for strict action. A fine of Rs.50,000/- in addition to other disciplinary action may be levied. In case of non-compliance of the above, the final result/release/NOC from the University may be kept with held.

It may also be noted that democratic protest (dharna), if any shall be held only in designated place that is in the premise of Netaji Subhas Mukta Mancha of the University.

This issues with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
